

West Point News

Serving the Blue Mountain Region of Calaveras County, Calif.

January 2009 Vol. 17, No. 1

INSIDE

A little help

Applications are due for the annual West Point Scholarship awards

Story on page 2.

Tearing it up

The Hare Scramble attracted hundreds of racers to Wilseyville.

Story on page 11.

Pertussis

How to recognize the signs of Whooping Cough and what to do next.

Story on page 3.

Resolutions

A young writer recognizes early on that New Year's resolutions are easier said than done.

Column on page 6.

Collaboration

Local agencies recognize the strength in numbers when it comes to being in line for government funding.

Story on page 2.

Winter comes to Central California

Snow blankets the roundhouse at Chaw'se Indian Grinding Rock State Park (above) in Volcano following a cold December storm that brought much-needed precipitation to the Mother Lode. The series of storms allowed nearby ski resorts to reach their dreams of opening in time for the holiday season.

STANDARD U.S. POSTAGE PAID
PERMIT #4 SONORA, CA

Clear-cut plans

Sierra Pacific Industries plans more clear-cutting adjacent to existing sites, and at least one group has raised an alarm. For story, see page 8.

